

MICHAEL GOGUEN

Founder, Two Bear Capital

Michael Goguen is the founder and managing partner of Two Bear Capital, a venture capital firm in Whitefish, Montana, Boston, San Diego, and the San Francisco Bay area that invests in companies at the intersection of biotechnology, bioinformatics, artificial intelligence/machine learning and cybersecurity.

Previously, Mike was a partner at Sequoia Capital where he proved his extraordinary ability to identify and help build groundbreaking companies in Silicon Valley. Over the course of 20 years, Mike led 54 company investments to a combined market value exceeding $64 billion and had 26 exits above $100 million. He has frequently appeared on the Forbes magazine Midas List.

Mike is a noted philanthropist in Montana and serves as Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees for Logan Healthcare, a 343-bed, 314-provider health care system headquartered in Kalispell, Montana. He also founded and fully funds Two Bear Air Rescue, which provides emergency helicopter rescue services to victims stranded in inaccessible areas.

He holds a B.S. from Cornell University and an M.S. from Stanford University, both in Electrical Engineering.

THANK YOU TO OUR TREASURE STATE INVESTORS

for supporting all Montana Chamber and Chamber Foundation events

